

STANLEY SCHOOLS CHRISTMAS BAZAAR 2009

Thank you to everyone who came to the Christmas Bazaar and helped make it such a great success. You raised an amazing £4,500 for our schools.

Special thanks to everyone who helped to make this event. Without you the Christmas Bazaar wouldn't have happened. So to everyone who organised, planned, helped with set up and tidy up, manned the stalls, painted faces, sold toys and baked cakes A HUGE GREAT THANK YOU.

Our star Raffle prize of the Nintendo Wii went to Maria Romero. We hope all the other Raffle winners enjoy their prizes too.

The X-Box challenge was won by Owen Glover, Cathy Mocke guessed the right number of sweets in a jar and Josh Wilkinson was right when he guessed that the Snowman's name was Ben!

Gaynor Reid Smith made a beautiful Christmas cake which weighed in at 2953 grammes or 6lb 8oz and Lisa Ritchie was the closest at 3kg.

There were successful and happy bidders for all the special Silent Auction prizes.

Our star Christmas Tree decorators for the Christmas Tree Tombola were:
Evan Reid Smith, Charlie Owens, Archie Hale and Lily Lawson

Special thanks go to Hugo and Niki Mauthner & Nursery AM & PM for running the very popular Café. Hugo and his business partner Alistair (Alistair - Hugo Catering and Events) were our chefs for the day keeping everyone's energy levels up with bacon rolls, sausages, soup and mulled wine.

Thanks too to Margaret and team at 130 Litho for printing our programme and supporting our event.

We had some amazing prizes donated this year so thanks to all who made donations and to those who dedicated a lot of time out and about gathering them.

Don't forget to complete those quizzes that you picked up on the day. Please return to either of the School Offices by this Friday 4th December. The winner receives a £30 voucher for Piazza Firenze, a great Italian restaurant in Hampton Hill.

Thanks again and enjoy the rest of the build up to Christmas!
